

It is with a profound sense of admiration for the work of Dr. Mark Miravalle and the Vox Populi Dogma Movement that I give my joyful and unconditional support and endorsement to the third volume in the theological series Mary Coredemptrix, Mediatrix, and Advocate, and the said Vox Populi Dogma Movement.

In the light of the contents and compositions of this third volume, namely, previously published articles as well as several presentations given by renowned lovers of the Blessed Mother of God at Vox Populi International Leaders Conferences in Rome, I readily give my Imprimatur.

I wish to add that I consider it a great honor and privilege, and veritable joy also, to add my voice to the voices of many millions in honor of the Woman, “fair as the moon, and bright as the sun” (Cant. 6:9), who brought the world the Son of God 2000 years ago. It is through her that He came to us and it is the will of God the Father that through her we must go to Him, and through Him, with Him, and in Him in the Holy Spirit to the Father.

May God’s richest blessings rest upon all those who are promoting so worthy and sacred a cause to the honor of the ever-Blessed Virgin Mary and to the praise and glory of the Blessed Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Sincerely in Jesus and Mary,

Sydney A. Charles
Bishop of St. George’s-in-Grenada
